

Training talent for the digital economy

Cisco Networking Academy

Best in Class Industry Workforce Development Program.

The demand for professionals trained on ICTs in Latin America and the Caribbean exceeds the supply available by more than 30%.

1 | Global impact

Opportunities in a digital economy	 2,149,000 students in more than 180 countries
Better career expectations	 CERTIFICATIONS that are globally recognized
Social and economic development of the countries	 Educational institutions, organizations and governments involved

Since 1997, Cisco Networking Academy has partnered with leading educational institutions worldwide in order to prepare more than 11 million students for IT careers. Together we are creating a new generation of problem solvers in order to strengthen the digital economy.

21st Century skills

 Information and Communications Technologies	 Critical thinking	 Problem-solving	 Teamwork	 Entrepreneurship
---	--	--	---	--

2 | Presence

Latin America
+ 704,100
students annually

Argentina	8,962
Bolivia	6,955
Brazil	62,086
Chile	23,575
Colombia	39,526
Costa Rica	18,299
Ecuador	27,633
Mexico	88,723
Peru	385,911

Historical Impact in Latin America

Historical	 2,500,000 students
	 + 604 million dollars In Kind Contribution*
	 + 30 countries

* This figure approximately demonstrates the value of Cisco's non-monetary contribution, including the contribution in study plans and Packet Tracer, academy support and discounts.
 * The value of that offer in kind is estimated in a conservative manner.

3 | Results

Students who completed CCNA 4, CCNP or higher	 + 95% obtained a job or education opportunity
	 + 78% obtained some job opportunity
	 + 54% got a new job

Cisco Networking Academy

Training a new generation of global problem solvers

For more information visit www.netacad.com